

He's one of two Black comedic hypnotists in the world! With a voice that's solid and sexy, sub-merged in a baritone British accent,

Ramon Smith———The Dream Catcher, Hypnotist Extraordinaire pulls his participants and audience into a deeper state of relaxation and sleep.

...19...18...17...16...15... stop and look around, stepping deeper and deeper into your place of total peace and relaxation. Ramon takes control of his participants by creating an atmosphere that compels them to listen and obey his every command. He is in complete control as he uses humor and comedy, from a tasteful perspective to take you into a Deeper Sleep.

Ramon has over 12 years experience in hypnotism. His performances have been seen nation-wide at various venues including college campuses, corporate affairs, weddings, conferences, private, public as well as individual therapy sessions. Ramon's unique style of working with his participants as well as his clients, places him head-and-shoulders above the rest of his contemporaries in the industry.

Ramon came to the US from the Bermuda Triangle; but don't let your superstitions about this region keep you from witnessing for yourself this awesome performer! Ramon is being sought after by businesses to help to train employees through hypnotic suggestion, thereby helping to create a more productive workforce. He's also helped individuals eradicate various addictions including, smoking, drinking, overeating and the like. Other services included overcoming bad habits, fears, phobias and frustrations.

Let Ramon Smith bring excitement to your next event! This may be the one time you'll want to keep your dreams for yourself!
